MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD

The Library Advisory Board is looking forward to a productive new year of service. We have new officers and some new members. The new officers are President Charlotte Evans, Vice President Lou Wall, Secretary Angie Roark. The Board is also looking for new members with fresh ideas and insight in how the Library may better serve our community. If you would like to serve or just give us your thoughts please email me Charlotte Evans. email chuckiejoevans@yahoo.com

Since I have some blank space to fill, I thought I would let you know my new favorite series of books. It is the Library Lover's Mysteries by Jenn McKinlay. It is a cozy mystery...very light and fun. To be honest, I listened to the books on our audio CDs and loved the reader.

If you like fun, light reading I would suggest these.

I am in love with the characters, but I must warn you. The last book of the series has a small cliff hanger and I am anxiously awaiting the next in the series. There are seven books so far.

I have just started on another series by Ms. McKinlay, the Hat Shop Mysteries. I am not as crazy about these so far, but I am only on the first. The reader is wonderful though, with her English and Scottish accents. Makes for a fun listen.

If you decide to give this a read or listen, stop by the office and let me know what you think.

THE CASS COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

The Cass County Genealogical Society held its annual Christmas Party December 13th at 6:00 pm, in the Fellowship Hall of the United Methodist Church located on the corner of Marietta and 4th St. in Queen City. As always there was more food and refreshments than we could eat and many of the members left with doggy bags. The silent auction was a great success with lots of neat stuff up for grabs. As part of the festivities a Love Offering will be presented to the Church for allowing the C.C.G.S. to use their wonderful facility.

George Frost received The Annual Myerline Bowman Award for outstanding contributions to the C.C.G.S., Also, the newly elected and returning officers of the C.C.G.S. were installed by C.C.G.S. Member Carolyn Addington.

The new C.C.G.S. Officers are:

President...Charlotte Evans

First Vice President...Louella Vernon

Second Vice President...Elener Pyle

Recording Secretary...Traci Jones

Corresponding Secretary...Evan Evans

Treasurer...Cathie Maley

Librarian...Traci Jones

Assistant Librarian...George Frost

Editors...Kathy Peacock & Anita Walker

Historian...Evan Evans

Publisher...Charles Steger

At the January meeting that will be held in the Fellowship Hall of the United Methodist Church located on the corner of Marietta and 4th St. in Queen City at 6:30 pm Jan. 10, 2017 several members of the C. C. G. S. will relate the tails of some of the 'Black Sheep' of their families, and as is always the case there will be plenty of food and refreshments and the public is invited.

For all the C.C.G.S. members January is renewal time for your membership so be sure to get your dues in. If you are not a member and would like more information, please call us at 903-796-3081 or talk to any of the lovely ladies at the library for more information.

Of special note: C. C. G. S. member Cathie Maley is writing a monthly column about genealogy for the Atlanta Citizen Journal.

Because of the "Sticker Shock" we suffered when we tried to have our last books printed the C.C.G.S. Has adopted a program of "Self-Publishing" We are currently publishing the following:

* The History of Pioneers and Their Recipes
Standard 5.5" X 8.5" size

* The History of Pioneers and Their Recipes
Large Print 8.5" x 11" size

* The Older Cass County Recipes of Pioneer Woman 5.5" X 8.5"

* Law's Chapel, A History & Records 1853-1976
compiled by Charles Steger

* History of First United Methodist Church, Atlanta, Texas compiled by Audrey Rankin & Kathy Peacock

* Obituaries with Cass County Connections 2014 – 2015 compiled by Audrey Rankin

* The Cass County Connections Journal Spring and Summer 2015

* The Cass County Connections Journal Fall and Winter 2015

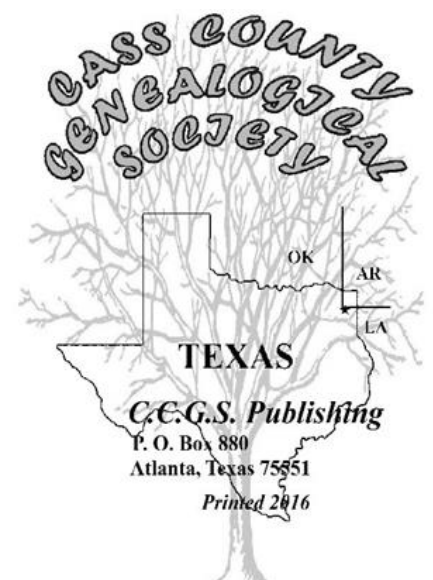

* The Cass County Connections Journal Spring and Summer 2016

* The Cass County Connections Journal Fall and Winter 2016

* And we are continuing to add new books to this list each month.

* There are also DVDs of all of the C.C.G.S. Programs back to September 2014 available.
